Dear Parents and Carers,

No newsletter this week, as we will have a bumper edition on Tuesday to mark the end of term!

The forecast is for cooler weather after the weekend, so we would like the children to wear uniform, including ties if they are wearing shirts. They should wear smart shoes – not trainers or open toed sandals (or crocs!). It will be great to be back in our smart attire for the final two days of term.

Your child should have brought their end of year report home today – I hope you find it useful and informative.

Please find below some holiday information which you may find useful.
